

Society

By E. C. DRUM-HUNT

The President received in the Blue Room at the White House yesterday Mr. Charles Moravia, Minister of Haiti, who came to Washington in March and was received at the State Department. He was not presented earlier because of the President's absence. Mr. Albert Blanchet, secretary of the legation, accompanied the Minister.

The President and Mrs. Wilson took a short automobile ride together yesterday afternoon for about an hour. Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson, of Baltimore, sister-in-law of the President, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. J. G. McElroy at the White Sulphur Springs, has gone to Montreal, N. C., to visit Mrs. McElroy was the last White House bride, her marriage taking place there last August.

The Italian Ambassador, Count Marchi di Celere, who joined the Countess di Celere in Newport last week, will return to Washington today. The Countess is passing the summer at Newport.

The Secretary of War, Newton D. Baker, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Franklin D. Roosevelt, spent yesterday in Buffalo, N. Y., where they both addressed the convention of the Knights of Columbus and the Christian Endeavor Society. Mr. Baker will not return until the end of the week, as he will join Mrs. Baker and the children in Chautauqua, N. Y., where they are passing the month of August. Mr. Roosevelt will return here today.

SECRETARY DANIELS IN SAN DIEGO.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Joseph Daniels have reached the West Coast and are in San Diego, Cal., where they will review the fleet today.

The Minister of Venezuela, Señor Don Santos A. Domínguez, will leave Washington this morning for a visit of several weeks at Atlantic City.

Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, the President's aid and personal physician, has gone to Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and is at the United States Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Baruch are at the same hotel, having gone to Saratoga from Washington, where they passed several days.

Mrs. Henry P. Fletcher, wife of the American Ambassador to Mexico now in special duty here with the State Department, is visiting Mrs. Willard A. Straight, at Racquette Lake, N. Y.

The Solicitor General of the State Department, Mr. Alexander King, who has been visiting at his home in Atlanta, Ga., has joined Mrs. King at their summer home at Flat Rock, N. C., for the month of August.

Senator and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, who came to Washington Monday, will return home at Watch Hill, R. I., will return tonight. Mrs. Newberry spent yesterday in the Senate gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denby, now passing the season at the Huron Mountain Club in Michigan, have passed their home, 335 Huntington street, Chevy Chase, to Mr. Harry Kaufman, and have taken the residence at 262 O street, which they will occupy when they return in the fall.

SOCIETY GIRLS HONOR GUESTS.

Stanley Higgins, of the Railroad Administration, and Mrs. Higgins will entertain a large company at dinner Saturday evening at the Raleigh Hotel in compliment to Mr. Higgins' cousins, Miss Georgia Campbell and Miss Honey Campbell, who are passing the summer with their mother, Mrs. W. H. H. Miller, at her home in Mount Pleasant. The Misses Campbell are noted musicians.

Representative Sam R. Solis has one to his home in Johnson City, Tenn., for a short visit.

Representative C. Bascom Sloop will return next week from an extended European trip.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cameron McL. Winslow have as their guests at their Newport residence Maurice L. McLaughlin and Thomas C. Underly.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., are visiting them at their summer home at Narragansett Pier. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvey D. Gibson, of New York.

M. S. Green has gone to White Sulphur Springs.

Miller Wilson is making a short stay at the Hot Springs, Va.

Former United States Ambassador to Germany and Mrs. James W. Ward gave a dinner last evening at Newport, where they are for the summer.

Clarence Ousley, recently resigned as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, will spend the week-end at Southampton.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCormick, at Southampton, Long Island. Senator McCormick is returning to Washington, but he will join his family at Southampton for the week-end.

INTERESTING NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. William H. Whitehead, of Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A. Sutherland returned only about three weeks ago from many months' service overseas. The wedding will take place late in the fall when the bride's younger sister, Miss Maude Whitehead, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Sutherland, who has recently been visiting in Chattanooga, will be one of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Sutherland is expected in Washington within a day or two for a week's visit. She has been at their summer home at Elkins, Va., for some time. Her younger daughters, Miss Virginia Sutherland, is already in Washington.

Gen. H. M. Lord, director of finance, and his staff gave an informal farewell luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday in honor of Col. P. L. Smith, zone finance officer, who has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth. The occasion was celebrated by songs especially written and sung by a quartet of young ladies from the Transportation and Telegraph Branch of the Zone Finance Office, led by Miss Madeline Goldsmith.

Col. F. W. Coleman, who was presided as toastmaster, presented as Col. Coleman, Maj. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Williams, of New York and Long Island, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, at their summer home at Woodmere. Mrs. Williams before her marriage was Miss Katherine Culver, a grand daughter of the former Senator William A. Clark, of New York. Mr. Williams is a former Baltimorean, and his cousin, Miss Georgiana Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis Williams, of Ridgewood, Md., was their guest on Long Island earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Dewees Dilworth is visiting Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., in Newport.

Mrs. Sara Janet Talliaferro, of Baltimore, has come to Washington, where she will remain for an indefinite period to visit her son, Philip Joseph Key, at the Hotel Burlington. Later she will motor through Virginia.

Senator Claude Swanson has returned from a visit in Charlottesville, Va.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday in Montclair, near Santa Barbara, Cal., when Miss Margaret Lloyd Trimble, daughter of Mrs. Trimble and the late Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Harold de Ropp, son of Baron and Baroness Alfred de Ropp, of New York and Santa Barbara. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, Jr.

Mrs. George F. Becker, of Washington, closed her house in Tyngham yesterday and started for Japan to do Red Cross work.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are spending the summer at their place at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., are passing several days at the Plaza Hotel, in New York.

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has been at Narragansett Pier with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell, of Washington, has gone to New York to await the arrival of her husband, Edson Mitchell, from the Mediterranean.

George J. Roberts, of this city, has gone to New York and is staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

Senator William M. Calder is making a visit to his home in New York.

John Dolph, of Washington, a member of the committee of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, is visiting in Atlantic City.

Judge and Mrs. John T. Goodrick, of Fredericksburg, Va., are spending a few days at Fort Washington, as the guests of their son, Capt. Robert Emmett Mason Goodrick. Judge Goodrick is a prominent former Confederate commander of Virginia. He is the past commander of the Confederate camp, and is on the staff of the grand commander of the Confederate veterans. Mrs. Goodrick is a great-granddaughter of George Mason, of Gunston Hall. She is president of the Confederate Memorial Association of Fredericksburg, the first and oldest in the South. She is the president of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Fredericksburg and of the Mary Washington Hospital.

RICK-JENKINS WEDDING PRETTY.

A simply arranged but attractive wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, August 2, at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, when Mr. Donald L. Rich and Miss Agnes Augusta Jenkins were married. Father Mackin officiating. Miss Jean McCordell was bridesmaid and Mr. Edward B. Lawson acted as best man.

The bridegroom recently returned from overseas duty with the 9th Artillery, C. A. C., and has resumed his practice in patent law. The bride held an important position in the Navy Department.

After a luncheon at the Elbitt House Mr. and Mrs. Rich left for Cape May, N. J. They will be at home after September 15.

Miss Ruth Howard Sturtevant, sister of Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, of this city, will act as sponsor for Destroyer No. 240, now under construction at Camden, N. J., which has been named Sturtevant Le Roy Boyle. Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, the first American naval reserve aviator to lose his life in the war, Sturtevant was shot down while flying over enemy lines on February 26, 1918. He was the son of Charles Sturtevant.

Elihu Root, Jr., has come to Washington and is at the Willard for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. C. C. McChord, who have been in Atlantic City for the last ten days, will probably stay there until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. George Le Roy Boyle, the latter formerly Miss Margaret McChord, have an apartment at the Rochambeau for the summer, where they have recently been entertaining Mr. Boyle's parents, who spent a day or two in Washington on their way home to Kansas City from Atlantic City, where they passed several weeks.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCormick, at Southampton, Long Island. Senator McCormick is returning to Washington, but he will join his family at Southampton for the week-end.

INTERESTING NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. William H. Whitehead, of Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A. Sutherland returned only about three weeks ago from many months' service overseas. The wedding will take place late in the fall when the bride's younger sister, Miss Maude Whitehead, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Sutherland, who has recently been visiting in Chattanooga, will be one of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Sutherland is expected in Washington within a day or two for a week's visit. She has been at their summer home at Elkins, Va., for some time. Her younger daughters, Miss Virginia Sutherland, is already in Washington.

Gen. H. M. Lord, director of finance, and his staff gave an informal farewell luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday in honor of Col. P. L. Smith, zone finance officer, who has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth. The occasion was celebrated by songs especially written and sung by a quartet of young ladies from the Transportation and Telegraph Branch of the Zone Finance Office, led by Miss Madeline Goldsmith.

Col. F. W. Coleman, who was presided as toastmaster, presented as Col. Coleman, Maj. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Williams, of New York and Long Island, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, at their summer home at Woodmere. Mrs. Williams before her marriage was Miss Katherine Culver, a grand daughter of the former Senator William A. Clark, of New York. Mr. Williams is a former Baltimorean, and his cousin, Miss Georgiana Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis Williams, of Ridgewood, Md., was their guest on Long Island earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Dewees Dilworth is visiting Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., in Newport.

Mrs. Sara Janet Talliaferro, of Baltimore, has come to Washington, where she will remain for an indefinite period to visit her son, Philip Joseph Key, at the Hotel Burlington. Later she will motor through Virginia.

Senator Claude Swanson has returned from a visit in Charlottesville, Va.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday in Montclair, near Santa Barbara, Cal., when Miss Margaret Lloyd Trimble, daughter of Mrs. Trimble and the late Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Harold de Ropp, son of Baron and Baroness Alfred de Ropp, of New York and Santa Barbara. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, Jr.

Mrs. George F. Becker, of Washington, closed her house in Tyngham yesterday and started for Japan to do Red Cross work.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are spending the summer at their place at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., are passing several days at the Plaza Hotel, in New York.

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has been at Narragansett Pier with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell, of Washington, has gone to New York to await the arrival of her husband, Edson Mitchell, from the Mediterranean.

George J. Roberts, of this city, has gone to New York and is staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

Senator William M. Calder is making a visit to his home in New York.

John Dolph, of Washington, a member of the committee of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, is visiting in Atlantic City.

Judge and Mrs. John T. Goodrick, of Fredericksburg, Va., are spending a few days at Fort Washington, as the guests of their son, Capt. Robert Emmett Mason Goodrick. Judge Goodrick is a prominent former Confederate commander of Virginia. He is the past commander of the Confederate camp, and is on the staff of the grand commander of the Confederate veterans. Mrs. Goodrick is a great-granddaughter of George Mason, of Gunston Hall. She is president of the Confederate Memorial Association of Fredericksburg, the first and oldest in the South. She is the president of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Fredericksburg and of the Mary Washington Hospital.

RICK-JENKINS WEDDING PRETTY.

A simply arranged but attractive wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, August 2, at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, when Mr. Donald L. Rich and Miss Agnes Augusta Jenkins were married. Father Mackin officiating. Miss Jean McCordell was bridesmaid and Mr. Edward B. Lawson acted as best man.

The bridegroom recently returned from overseas duty with the 9th Artillery, C. A. C., and has resumed his practice in patent law. The bride held an important position in the Navy Department.

After a luncheon at the Elbitt House Mr. and Mrs. Rich left for Cape May, N. J. They will be at home after September 15.

Miss Ruth Howard Sturtevant, sister of Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, of this city, will act as sponsor for Destroyer No. 240, now under construction at Camden, N. J., which has been named Sturtevant Le Roy Boyle. Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, the first American naval reserve aviator to lose his life in the war, Sturtevant was shot down while flying over enemy lines on February 26, 1918. He was the son of Charles Sturtevant.

Elihu Root, Jr., has come to Washington and is at the Willard for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. C. C. McChord, who have been in Atlantic City for the last ten days, will probably stay there until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. George Le Roy Boyle, the latter formerly Miss Margaret McChord, have an apartment at the Rochambeau for the summer, where they have recently been entertaining Mr. Boyle's parents, who spent a day or two in Washington on their way home to Kansas City from Atlantic City, where they passed several weeks.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCormick, at Southampton, Long Island. Senator McCormick is returning to Washington, but he will join his family at Southampton for the week-end.

INTERESTING NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. William H. Whitehead, of Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A. Sutherland returned only about three weeks ago from many months' service overseas. The wedding will take place late in the fall when the bride's younger sister, Miss Maude Whitehead, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Sutherland, who has recently been visiting in Chattanooga, will be one of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Sutherland is expected in Washington within a day or two for a week's visit. She has been at their summer home at Elkins, Va., for some time. Her younger daughters, Miss Virginia Sutherland, is already in Washington.

Gen. H. M. Lord, director of finance, and his staff gave an informal farewell luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday in honor of Col. P. L. Smith, zone finance officer, who has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth. The occasion was celebrated by songs especially written and sung by a quartet of young ladies from the Transportation and Telegraph Branch of the Zone Finance Office, led by Miss Madeline Goldsmith.

Col. F. W. Coleman, who was presided as toastmaster, presented as Col. Coleman, Maj. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Williams, of New York and Long Island, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, at their summer home at Woodmere. Mrs. Williams before her marriage was Miss Katherine Culver, a grand daughter of the former Senator William A. Clark, of New York. Mr. Williams is a former Baltimorean, and his cousin, Miss Georgiana Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis Williams, of Ridgewood, Md., was their guest on Long Island earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Dewees Dilworth is visiting Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., in Newport.

Mrs. Sara Janet Talliaferro, of Baltimore, has come to Washington, where she will remain for an indefinite period to visit her son, Philip Joseph Key, at the Hotel Burlington. Later she will motor through Virginia.

Senator Claude Swanson has returned from a visit in Charlottesville, Va.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday in Montclair, near Santa Barbara, Cal., when Miss Margaret Lloyd Trimble, daughter of Mrs. Trimble and the late Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Harold de Ropp, son of Baron and Baroness Alfred de Ropp, of New York and Santa Barbara. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, Jr.

Mrs. George F. Becker, of Washington, closed her house in Tyngham yesterday and started for Japan to do Red Cross work.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are spending the summer at their place at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., are passing several days at the Plaza Hotel, in New York.

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has been at Narragansett Pier with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell, of Washington, has gone to New York to await the arrival of her husband, Edson Mitchell, from the Mediterranean.

George J. Roberts, of this city, has gone to New York and is staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

Senator William M. Calder is making a visit to his home in New York.

John Dolph, of Washington, a member of the committee of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, is visiting in Atlantic City.

Judge and Mrs. John T. Goodrick, of Fredericksburg, Va., are spending a few days at Fort Washington, as the guests of their son, Capt. Robert Emmett Mason Goodrick. Judge Goodrick is a prominent former Confederate commander of Virginia. He is the past commander of the Confederate camp, and is on the staff of the grand commander of the Confederate veterans. Mrs. Goodrick is a great-granddaughter of George Mason, of Gunston Hall. She is president of the Confederate Memorial Association of Fredericksburg, the first and oldest in the South. She is the president of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Fredericksburg and of the Mary Washington Hospital.

RICK-JENKINS WEDDING PRETTY.

A simply arranged but attractive wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, August 2, at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, when Mr. Donald L. Rich and Miss Agnes Augusta Jenkins were married. Father Mackin officiating. Miss Jean McCordell was bridesmaid and Mr. Edward B. Lawson acted as best man.

The bridegroom recently returned from overseas duty with the 9th Artillery, C. A. C., and has resumed his practice in patent law. The bride held an important position in the Navy Department.

After a luncheon at the Elbitt House Mr. and Mrs. Rich left for Cape May, N. J. They will be at home after September 15.

Miss Ruth Howard Sturtevant, sister of Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, of this city, will act as sponsor for Destroyer No. 240, now under construction at Camden, N. J., which has been named Sturtevant Le Roy Boyle. Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, the first American naval reserve aviator to lose his life in the war, Sturtevant was shot down while flying over enemy lines on February 26, 1918. He was the son of Charles Sturtevant.

Elihu Root, Jr., has come to Washington and is at the Willard for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. C. C. McChord, who have been in Atlantic City for the last ten days, will probably stay there until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. George Le Roy Boyle, the latter formerly Miss Margaret McChord, have an apartment at the Rochambeau for the summer, where they have recently been entertaining Mr. Boyle's parents, who spent a day or two in Washington on their way home to Kansas City from Atlantic City, where they passed several weeks.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCormick, at Southampton, Long Island. Senator McCormick is returning to Washington, but he will join his family at Southampton for the week-end.

INTERESTING NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. William H. Whitehead, of Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A. Sutherland returned only about three weeks ago from many months' service overseas. The wedding will take place late in the fall when the bride's younger sister, Miss Maude Whitehead, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Sutherland, who has recently been visiting in Chattanooga, will be one of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Sutherland is expected in Washington within a day or two for a week's visit. She has been at their summer home at Elkins, Va., for some time. Her younger daughters, Miss Virginia Sutherland, is already in Washington.

Gen. H. M. Lord, director of finance, and his staff gave an informal farewell luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday in honor of Col. P. L. Smith, zone finance officer, who has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth. The occasion was celebrated by songs especially written and sung by a quartet of young ladies from the Transportation and Telegraph Branch of the Zone Finance Office, led by Miss Madeline Goldsmith.

Col. F. W. Coleman, who was presided as toastmaster, presented as Col. Coleman, Maj. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Williams, of New York and Long Island, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, at their summer home at Woodmere. Mrs. Williams before her marriage was Miss Katherine Culver, a grand daughter of the former Senator William A. Clark, of New York. Mr. Williams is a former Baltimorean, and his cousin, Miss Georgiana Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis Williams, of Ridgewood, Md., was their guest on Long Island earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Dewees Dilworth is visiting Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., in Newport.

Mrs. Sara Janet Talliaferro, of Baltimore, has come to Washington, where she will remain for an indefinite period to visit her son, Philip Joseph Key, at the Hotel Burlington. Later she will motor through Virginia.

Senator Claude Swanson has returned from a visit in Charlottesville, Va.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday in Montclair, near Santa Barbara, Cal., when Miss Margaret Lloyd Trimble, daughter of Mrs. Trimble and the late Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Harold de Ropp, son of Baron and Baroness Alfred de Ropp, of New York and Santa Barbara. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, Jr.

Mrs. George F. Becker, of Washington, closed her house in Tyngham yesterday and started for Japan to do Red Cross work.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are spending the summer at their place at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., are passing several days at the Plaza Hotel, in New York.

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has been at Narragansett Pier with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell, of Washington, has gone to New York to await the arrival of her husband, Edson Mitchell, from the Mediterranean.

George J. Roberts, of this city, has gone to New York and is staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

Senator William M. Calder is making a visit to his home in New York.

John Dolph, of Washington, a member of the committee of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, is visiting in Atlantic City.

Judge and Mrs. John T. Goodrick, of Fredericksburg, Va., are spending a few days at Fort Washington, as the guests of their son, Capt. Robert Emmett Mason Goodrick. Judge Goodrick is a prominent former Confederate commander of Virginia. He is the past commander of the Confederate camp, and is on the staff of the grand commander of the Confederate veterans. Mrs. Goodrick is a great-granddaughter of George Mason, of Gunston Hall. She is president of the Confederate Memorial Association of Fredericksburg, the first and oldest in the South. She is the president of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Fredericksburg and of the Mary Washington Hospital.

RICK-JENKINS WEDDING PRETTY.

A simply arranged but attractive wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, August 2, at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, when Mr. Donald L. Rich and Miss Agnes Augusta Jenkins were married. Father Mackin officiating. Miss Jean McCordell was bridesmaid and Mr. Edward B. Lawson acted as best man.

The bridegroom recently returned from overseas duty with the 9th Artillery, C. A. C., and has resumed his practice in patent law. The bride held an important position in the Navy Department.

After a luncheon at the Elbitt House Mr. and Mrs. Rich left for Cape May, N. J. They will be at home after September 15.

Miss Ruth Howard Sturtevant, sister of Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, of this city, will act as sponsor for Destroyer No. 240, now under construction at Camden, N. J., which has been named Sturtevant Le Roy Boyle. Ensign Albert D. Sturtevant, the first American naval reserve aviator to lose his life in the war, Sturtevant was shot down while flying over enemy lines on February 26, 1918. He was the son of Charles Sturtevant.

Elihu Root, Jr., has come to Washington and is at the Willard for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. C. C. McChord, who have been in Atlantic City for the last ten days, will probably stay there until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. George Le Roy Boyle, the latter formerly Miss Margaret McChord, have an apartment at the Rochambeau for the summer, where they have recently been entertaining Mr. Boyle's parents, who spent a day or two in Washington on their way home to Kansas City from Atlantic City, where they passed several weeks.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCormick, at Southampton, Long Island. Senator McCormick is returning to Washington, but he will join his family at Southampton for the week-end.

INTERESTING NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. William H. Whitehead, of Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A. Sutherland returned only about three weeks ago from many months' service overseas. The wedding will take place late in the fall when the bride's younger sister, Miss Maude Whitehead, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Sutherland, who has recently been visiting in Chattanooga, will be one of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Sutherland is expected in Washington within a day or two for a week's visit. She has been at their summer home at Elkins, Va., for some time. Her younger daughters, Miss Virginia Sutherland, is already in Washington.

Gen. H. M. Lord, director of finance, and his staff gave an informal farewell luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday in honor of Col. P. L. Smith, zone finance officer, who has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth. The occasion was celebrated by songs especially written and sung by a quartet of young ladies from the Transportation and Telegraph Branch of the Zone Finance Office, led by Miss Madeline Goldsmith.

Col. F. W. Coleman, who was presided as toastmaster, presented as Col. Coleman, Maj. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Williams, of New York and Long Island, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, at their summer home at Woodmere. Mrs. Williams before her marriage was Miss Katherine Culver, a grand daughter of the former Senator William A. Clark, of New York. Mr. Williams is a former Baltimorean, and his cousin, Miss Georgiana Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis Williams, of Ridgewood, Md., was their guest on Long Island earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Dewees Dilworth is visiting Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., in Newport.

Mrs. Sara Janet Talliaferro, of Baltimore, has come to Washington, where she will remain for an indefinite period to visit her son, Philip Joseph Key, at the Hotel Burlington. Later she will motor through Virginia.

Senator Claude Swanson has returned from a visit in Charlottesville, Va.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday in Montclair, near Santa Barbara, Cal., when Miss Margaret Lloyd Trimble, daughter of Mrs. Trimble and the late Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Harold de Ropp, son of Baron and Baroness Alfred de Ropp, of New York and Santa Barbara. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, Jr.

Mrs. George F. Becker, of Washington, closed her house in Tyngham yesterday and started for Japan to do Red Cross work.

MR. AND MRS. BRADLEY ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are spending the summer at their place at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., are passing several days at the Plaza Hotel, in New York.